- Section 5 The membership year shall run from July 1 through June 30.
- Section 6 All voting members will be given a copy of the By-Laws upon request.
- Section 7 All paid membership dues will be directed towards Senior Awards, which support North Penn senior students. Any excess funds will be redirected to the general capital replacement fund and/or Knights in Need Hardship fund at the discretion of the Executive Board.
- Section 8 Dues are not refundable and are not pro-rateable.

ARTICLE V Under the provisions specified in the By-Laws, this organization shall be governed by:

- Section 1 The Membership, in cooperation with the North Penn High School Director of Bands.
- Section 2 Executive Board
- A. The Executive Board shall consist of Elected Officers and Elected Chairpersons of the organization.
 - B. The Executive Board shall transact routine business, recommend policies to the organization, and act for the organization in case of an emergency.
 - C. The purpose of the Executive Board shall be to:
 - 1. Facilitate business at the General Membership Meetings.
 - 2. Review the plan of the Fundraising committee for fundraising projects and approve appropriate projects.
 - 3. Review and approve the plans and activities of the various committees.
 - 4. Recommend to the Membership expenditures necessary for the operation of the organization or for the benefit of the bands and related units.
 - 5. Approve all non-elected chairpersons recommended by the Nominating Committee.
 - 6. Maintain a balanced budget with no deficit spending.
 - D. The Executive Board shall have the power to authorize non-budgeted expenditures not to exceed $1,000.00.
 - E. The Director of Bands and assistant(s) may participate in an advisory capacity to the Executive Board and the General Membership.
 - F. The Executive Board shall act as a cohesive unit. Issues and concerns amongst Executive Board Members should be discussed among Executive Board Members only. Privileged information or matters discussed at Executive Board Meetings, especially during executive sessions, shall

- not be discussed with the General Membership.
- G. Qualifications of Executive Board Members
 1. All Executive Board Members must be dues paying members within thirty (30) days of beginning their term and have a student in the bands or related units.
 2. Executive Board Members must be in good financial standing with the organization.
 3. In order to be nominated, Executive Board Members should have volunteered a minimum of ten (10) hours to the organization or chaired a fundraising event. If no other member desires nomination to the office, the volunteer hours/fundraising event chair requirement will be waived.
 4. Executive Board Members may not serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in the same office except by recommendation of the Executive Board to the Nominating Committee, and only if no other member desires nomination to the office.
 5. Executive Board Members must maintain active attendance at all Executive Board Meetings and General Membership Meetings. Elected Officers missing more than two (2) regularly scheduled Executive Board Meetings or two (2) General Meetings can be removed from office. The President can excuse an absence in the case of illness or other mitigating circumstances.
 6. In the event that an individual cannot be found to assume the duties of an Executive Board position, two (2) members may be elected to share the position as co-officers or co-chairs. Should this occur, co-officer and co-chair positions shall count as only one (1) vote when voting is required by the Executive Board. Should a co-chair or co-officer be unavailable for a vote, the remaining co-chair or co-officer's vote shall count as one (1) vote.
 - H. Nomination of Executive Board Members
 1. The Nominating Committee, chaired by the Second Vice President, shall be established at the General Membership Meeting in January or February.
 2. The candidates must be present at the General Membership Meeting in March. In cases of emergency, this may be waived by the President.
 3. Nominations may be made from the floor at the April General Membership meeting. Nominations made from the floor must be seconded and the nominated party must be present to accept the nomination prior to placing their name on the ballot.
 - I. Election of Executive Board Members
 1. If there is only one (1) candidate nominated for an Executive Board position, election shall be by voice vote of voting members.
 2. If there is more than one (1) candidate nominated for an Executive Board position, election shall be by secret ballot of voting members.
 - a. The Student Financials Coordinator and Recording Secretary will be responsible for providing a membership roll that includes all voting members that have met the requirements to vote in an election.
 - b. Members will be responsible for checking in with the Student Financials Coordinator and the Second Vice President at the beginning of the meeting and will receive a voting coupon.
 - c. At the time the election is held, the voting coupon will be exchanged for a ballot.
 - d. Ballots will be collected and tabulated by the Second Vice President.
 - e. One (1) representative for each candidate may witness the tabulation.
 3. A majority vote of the voting members present at the meeting, provided a quorum is present, shall constitute an election.
 4. Election of new Executive Board Members shall take place at the conclusion of the new business agenda item for the General Membership Meeting in April and the Elected Officers shall assume their duties on July 1.
 5. Elected Executive Board Members shall serve a one-year term beginning July 1 and ending June 30 of the following year.
 6. No person shall hold more than one Executive Board position at a time.
 7. Each member has one vote and no proxy votes will be accepted.
 8. Newly elected Executive Board Members are encouraged to attend any remaining Executive Board Meetings prior to the commencement of their formal term.
 9. Special Election – The General Membership will be notified of the need for a Special Election with a minimum of three (3) days notice via a posting on the website and/or via e-mail. Nominations to fill the vacancy will be taken from the floor at the time of the Special Election. In addition, the Executive Board may make a recommendation to fill the vacancy. The nominees must be present at the General Membership Meeting and agree to serve, if elected.

- J. In the event that an Executive Board Member does not perform his or her duties, he or she may be removed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the sitting Executive Board. Notice must be provided to the Executive Board Member to be removed and a Special Executive Board hearing convened to address the matter. An Executive Board Member may also be removed by a majority vote of the General Membership at the next General Membership Meeting.
- K. Should a vacancy occur in the Executive Board that is not specifically addressed in Article VI, Section 2, Paragraph B, the unexpired term shall be filled through a Special Election, as defined in Article V, Section 2, Paragraph I, Item 9.

ARTICLE VI ELECTED OFFICERS

Section 1 The Elected Officers of the organization shall be President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Recording Secretary and Corresponding Secretary.

Section 2 Status of Elected Officers

- A. The Elected Officers of this organization shall serve without compensation.
- B. Vacancies
 1. The First Vice President shall automatically become President if the President is unable to serve. If the First Vice President is unable to serve as President, a Special Election, according to Article V, Section 2, Paragraph I, Item 9, will be held to fill the position of President.
 2. The Second Vice President shall automatically become First Vice President, if the First Vice President is unable to serve. If the Second Vice President is unable to serve as the First Vice President, a Special Election, according to Article V, Section 2, Paragraph I, Item 9, will be held to fill the position of First Vice President.
 3. If both Vice President positions are vacant, the Executive Board may re-assign those duties deemed necessary to fulfill the business and activities of the organization to the appropriate Executive Board member(s) until a Special Election, according to Article V, Section 2, Paragraph I, Item 9, can be held to fill the position(s) of Vice President.
- C. The Executive Board may secure a fiduciary bond for any or all Elected Officers.
- D. Any two (2) Elected Officers can authorize emergency expenditures of up to $500.00 for items required by the Director of Bands. A report must be submitted to the Treasurer in writing of any and all emergency expenditures within twenty-four (24) hours of authorizing such an expenditure. Notification should also be made to the Executive Board within 24 hours of such an action being taken.

- E. The members present at a duly organized meeting can continue to do business until adjournment unless withdrawal of enough members leaves less than a quorum.
- F. A simple majority of the voting members present and voting shall be sufficient to carry a motion.

ARTICLE XI ANNUAL REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OR OTHER BODY

Section 1

The Executive Board or other body shall present annually to the members a report showing in appropriate detail the following:

- A. The assets and liabilities, including the trust funds, of the corporation at the end of the fiscal year immediately preceding the date of the report.
- B. The principal changes in assets and liabilities including trust funds during the year immediately preceding the date of the report.
- C. The revenue or receipts of the corporation, both unrestricted and restricted to particular purpose, for the year immediately preceding the date of the report, including separate date with respect to each trust fund held by or for the corporation.
- D. The expense or disbursement of the corporation, for both general restricted purpose during the year immediately preceding the date of the report, including separate date with respect to each trust fund held by or for the corporation.
- E. The number of members of the corporation as of the date of the report, together with a statement of increase or decrease in such number during the year immediately preceding the date of the report, and a statement of the place where the names and addresses of current members may be found.

Section 2

The Annual Report of the Executive Board or other body shall be filed with the minutes of the General Membership meeting.

ARTICLE XII DISSOLUTION

Section 1

The organization may dissolve voluntarily by the appropriate motion and two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voting members present and voting at a subsequent regular meeting, provided written notice of the vote to dissolve shall have been given to every member at least fifteen (15) calendar days in advance of the latter meeting.

Section 2

Involuntary dissolution shall occur whenever it becomes evident to the Executive Board that it is no longer possible or practical to continue the organization. Such action by the Executive Board may occur only after failure to achieve a quorum at three (3) successive regular monthly General Membership meetings, with at least two (2) of those meetings being other than June, July or August, and only after written notice to the members of intent to dissolve at least fifteen (15) days prior to the announced date for the proposed final action.

Section 3

Upon the dissolution of the corporation or the organization, the Executive Board or governing staff shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation or organization, dispose of all the assets of the corporation or organization in such manner, or to such organization(s) organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization(s) under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1954 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Executive Board or governing staff shall determine.

Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation or organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XIII LIMITATIONS

While being a valuable asset and tool in the development of a superior music program, NPMA recognizes that they are to function within the framework of the NPSD Board Policy and be consistent with the current goals and objectives of the North Penn secondary music program. Attempts to influence the choice of music, choice of personnel, style of uniforms, or mode of operation are considered beyond the scope and purpose of this organization.

ARTICLE XIV AMENDMENTS

- Section 1 These By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting of the organization by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voting members present, provided that the proposed amendment has been submitted in writing and posted to the voting membership at the preceding General Membership meeting.
- Section 2 Approved changes to the By-Laws will take effect immediately or according to the proposed effective date of such change in the motion to change the by-law.
- Section 3 If no changes are proposed during the year, the By-Laws will not be revised and will serve as the standard for NPMA until such time as changes are reviewed and approved.

ARTICLE XV RULES OF ORDER

Robert's Rule of Order, Current Edition, shall govern the proceedings of all meetings except where Robert's Rule conflict with the By-Laws, in which case the By-Laws shall take precedence.

ARTICLE XVI FISCAL

The organization shall not incur or cause to be incurred any liability or obligation which shall be subject to liability of any other organization, subdivision, group of persons or other individuals or corporations. For example, the organization shall not co-sign a loan.

ARTICLE XVII PERSONAL LIABILITY AND/OR INDEMNIFICATION OF NORTH PENN MUSIC AIDES, INC EXECUTIVE BOARD

- Section 1 When acting as an Executive Board member, an Executive Board member shall not become personally liable for any damages for such actions so long as said actions do not constitute self-dealing, willful misconduct, and/or recklessness. The limitations on liability do not apply to criminal activities for payment of taxes.
- Section 2 To the fullest extent under applicable law, the organization does hereby indemnify all Executive Board members against any suits, causes of action, or claims arising out of an action taken, or any failure to take any action, while serving as an Executive Board member of the organization. This indemnification shall apply in the event of any threatened, pending or contemplated suit or cause of action; and the organization shall pay the expenses incurred by the Executive Board member in connection with such suit or cause of action. This indemnification shall continue even after the person ceases to be a member of the Executive Board. However, it will not apply if the action or inaction of the Executive Board member would constitute willful misconduct or recklessness.
